

WORK THAT MEETS LIFE

Charting a path forward to find your dream career begins with reflecting on these four statements. Use the worksheet below to take the first step towards a job that meets your life.

1 I want a job that...

Take time to think about what it is you want...is it more flexibility, a closer commute, or maybe more project management and less tactical work?

2 I don't want a job that...

Writing down your "don't want's" is a way to hold yourself accountable and ensure you're moving toward your ultimate goal of landing the right job, versus simply landing a new job.

3 I am happiest when...

Reflect on what brings you the most joy at your job. What are your career highlights and why? Are there any common threads that you can weave together to guide you to your true north?

4 Here are two ways to help me with my job search...

Having a prepared "ask" helps make the most of a networking meeting. Do you want an introduction to someone at a specific company? Are you seeking a connection in your dream field?
